DAY 2: MARRAKECH SIGHTSEEING TOUR * LOCALS AND CRAFTSMANSHIP ON THE TRACK ***

Your honeymoon adventure in Morocco continues today with a private tour to discover the secrets of the Medina of Marrakech. The centuries roll back as your private english speaking guide winds your way through the streets of the souks with the history of the city's glorious monuments and tells you tales of ancient times .

Included are visits to the beautiful Saadian tombs, where the bodies of the sultans and their families have been rested for centuries; The imposing Koutoubia Mosque; The Bahia Palace and the 15th century Jewish Quarter.

This afternoon you will be guided through the labyrinthine souq and visit the many different districts where craftsmen work diligently, making everything from leather baby shoes to cactus silk scarves and traditional lanterns.

DAY 3 : MARRAKECH : YVES SAINT LAURANT MUSEUM / GARDEN / GUELIZ NEWTOWN

Today you can stroll through the quiet Majorelle Garden, a welcome contrast to the hustle and bustle of the souks.

At the Berber Museum you can admire objects once belonging to the Berber tribes, while the Yves Saint Laurent 'Love Gallery' displays vivid paintings created by the French fashion designer.

The YSL Museum opened last year is a highlight and a must for every fashionist as well as every visitor to Marrakech.

In the evening, visit Djemaa El Fna, the city's bustling main square, where street artists attract crowds and open-air restaurants serve freshly cooked food.

DAY 4 : MARRAKECH – ESSAOUIRA :

This morning trip to the coastal town of Essaouira. The landscape is fairly flat for most of the way, the Atlas Mountains rise in the distance on a clear day.

As you get closer to the coast, it gets greener and more hilly, with olive groves and argan trees growing in the fields. It was possible to stop at a women's organ oil cooperative, where the women show the process of collecting oil from the argans.

When you arrive at your riad / hotel in Essaouira, spend the rest of the day exploring the medina of the city, which is much quieter than Marrakech's.

DAY 5: ESSAOUIRA RELAXED ARTFUL DISCOVERING TOUR

Today you go on a special tour with your local guide. We propose to go early to watch the fishermen unload their catch from their blue boats in the harbor.

The beach is a nice place for a walk or a run. It's also a great place to enjoy a sunset sunset ride. Some locals also offer camel rides on the beach. For the sports-minded traveler, Essaouira is home to some fine windsurfing and kitesurfing schools.

Beyond the beach you can spend hours in the medina - artisans, small shops, hidden vistas and other gems are worth exploring.

Tonight could be a great time to enjoy a local seafood dish should the catch of the day be tempting.

DAY 6: ESSAOUIRA THE TOTAL RELAXATION IN THE OLD MOGADOR

Spend another day in Essaouira, maybe buy some souvenirs or browse the market. You can take part in a Moroccan pastry course and learn how to make sweet treats such as almond gazelle horns and orange blossom biscuits.

Or just go to Hammam to take time for your beauty, give your body and mind complete relaxation, believe me this is one of the best experiences Morocco has to offer.

In the evening there are many restaurants and cafes overlooking the bay, where you can enjoy live music while enjoying a delicious meal and a sundowner.

DAY 8 : HIGHT ATLAS MAINTAINS – THE BERBER EXPERIENCE –

On your first full day in the Atlas Mountains, you can visit a local Berber village with your guide and driver, where you are invited to mint tea followed by lunch with a Berber family and learn about their lifestyle. We recommend a visit to the Berber Carpets Women's Cooperative, where local women learn skills such as weaving so they can sell their craft in local markets or in the souks of Marrakech.

DAY 9 : ONE MORE NIGHT BY THE BERBERS AT THE HIGH ATLAS MAINTAINS

You have one more day to enjoy in the mountains. We recommend taking your private chauffeur to a local village to explore the weekly local Berber market, where people who travel long distances in rural villages near and far to their wares sell or buy everything they need for this week.

You can also go with the Mountain guide for a hike through the hills and valleys - there are many routes that suit most fitness levels, and your guide will be the best for you to know.

Alternatively, you can use the facilities of your accommodation and spend more time relaxing.
