

ROMANTIC DAY TRIP TO OUALIDIA

THE PERFECT DAY TRIP FOR HONEYMOONERS & LOVERS

Over the centuries, the fishing village of Oualidia, which lies on the Atlantic coast of Morocco, has been the plaything of Portuguese colonialists and pirates time and again. Today, the stormy times are long gone and is now the paradise for honeymooners in Morocco.

In addition, the whole area is rich in history, culture, nature and birds.

Oualidia is famous for its oysters, delicious fresh seafood and beautiful lagoon with sea water. And it's a dreamy fishing village in the Atlantic for most of the year. A long sandbar separates the wild Atlantic and forms a quiet and very picturesque lagoon.

During the trip to Oualidia you have the opportunity to visit Safi or the pottery hill.

After about an hour along the Atlantic Arts, you arrive in Oualidia in time for lunch.

After a gourmet lunch, you will have the opportunity to observe birds of all kinds and explore the famous oyster beds (depending on the tide) on a boat trip.

You have time to relax on the dune beach, swim and if you are more inclined to be active, rent a kayak, go mountain biking or go for a romantic walk along the coast.

In the late afternoon we make our way back through the agricultural fertile region of Doukkala on the way to Marrakech.

Oualidia! a romantic place where senses and feelings are made intoxicating.
