After a two-hour drive through the Moroccan countryside and wild argan fields and grazing herds, you will reach the ancient city of Mogadishu, one of Morocco's most atmospheric, most harmonious, and now known as Essaouira.

On the way to Essaouira, a visit to the Argan Oil Women Cooperative is a truly unmissable highlight. A must!

Essaouira or Mogador, located on the Atlantic coast, has a constant temperature all year round in the 20 ° c. Its golden sand beach is popular for windsurfers. The city is also famous for its grilled fresh seafood, its thuja wood carvers and its silver craftsmen.

An oasis of peace, Médina is one of the most beautiful in the kingdom. Explore the narrow streets, the Jdid Market and the art galleries that lure the visitor to the fortifications of the city, which were protected from the mighty waves of the Atlantic and the Kasbah of Skallah, a 200 meter long military monument, in the eighteenth century Attackers come from the sea.

Cross the Marine Gateway (Port de la Marine) to get to one of the liveliest parts of the city, especially as you go straight as the fishing boats return and the fish auctions begin, while the seagulls fly majestically above it. This ancient harbor offers a breathtaking view of the white fortress of Essaouira.

Have a delicious plate of seafood or grilled fish on the beautiful beach and watch the windsurfers and kite surfers, sheltered from the omnipresent wind.

Essaouira as well as Oualidia are a great choice and a hideaway for those who want to spend time together in a very special chill-out atmosphere, and want to take a full day break from the souks and medina of Marrakech.
